

UNISON welcomes applications from candidates with disabilities.

DEFINITION

The Disability Discrimination Act 1995 defines disability as “a physical or mental impairment, which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on the ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.”

If you consider that you have an impairment that disables you in society (as defined by the Disability Discrimination Act 1995), please complete this form.

Your name

Arrangements if selected for interview/selection test

If you have a disability, please indicate whether you would need any arrangements to be made if you were invited to a selection test and interview.

Arrangements if appointed

Please give below details of any adjustments that would need to be made in order for you to carry out the duties of the job if appointed.

If you require information to be provided in a different format to enable you to return your application, please contact UNISON's organisation and staff development team on 020 7551 1120.
