Think? If shop stewards look after members, who looks after members' pensions savings?

Who? Capital stewards – trade union pension fund trustees and LGPS reps – that's who

What? capitalstewards.org is a new web community and resource for UNISON activists and members

New, exciting and unique resource – for you. An online community that uses film, video interviews, libraries, discussion areas, training materials, research, news alerts and email campaign alerts. Bringing together all the news and information from your pension schemes!

Film Your Money: the power of pension funds UNISON's unique animated film explains how pension funds work... in six minutes!

Library With nearly 2,000 searchable documents, covering a wide range of subjects and including fund data

Discussion areas Meet other activists, share information, and get help with your concerns

News Find out the latest news on the economy, investment and campaigns

Events Find out about the latest conferences, seminars and other events

Fund data Download your LGPS annual reports and other information, get informed

Research Find out about the latest UNISON research, Who Owns UK Public Services PLC? Other research papers and programmes as well

Security The site is HTTPS certificated – all content is encrypted between server and client. Password resets are randomised, and only the user has the ability to select a chosen password, which is not accessible by site administrators
