London, 23 February 2010

Dear colleague,

On behalf of UNISON I would like send a message of solidarity with the FSP-UGT and all Spanish public service workers for your day of action on 24 February.

Across Europe public sector workers' jobs and terms and conditions are under attack as governments seek to meet the challenges thrown up by the global financial and economic crisis. UNISON strongly believes, however, that public services need to be strengthened, not weakened. Public services, and public service workers, will have a crucial role to play in creating the conditions for economic recovery and for a more just society.

I wish you all the best for tomorrow,
