

Innovations in inclusion – 3 in 1

Free, one-day, equality and diversity launch event

30 March 2010 – Park Plaza Riverbank Hotel, London

Event overview

An event to launch and showcase three new tools and resources:

- training resources for the '7th Strand' – Promoting Transgender Equality
- the new equality and diversity one-stop shop on the Excellence Gateway
- research published by Lifelong Learning UK and the Forum for Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity in Post-School Education.

You'll get hands-on experience of the resources and the chance to see live demonstrations.

The resources have been developed by the LSC, LUIS, LUK and the Forum for Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity in Post-School Education.

Who should attend?

Those involved in the development and implementation of equality and diversity (E&D) and inclusion practices in further education colleges, such as: E&D practitioners, senior managers, HR professionals, curriculum development managers, inspection programme leaders, training and development managers, and learner services managers.

Benefits

- Try out a wide range of resources and have your questions answered on the spot.
- Use interactive tools to help you prepare for inspection and the new equality bill.
- Discover up-to-date training tools that will help you advance your organisation.
- Share your feedback and opinions with like-minded colleagues.
