

South East Black Members' Group MELA Festivals 2011

What is Mela?

Mela is a Sanskrit word meaning 'gathering' or 'to meet' or a Fair. It is used in the Indian subcontinent for all sizes of gathering and can be religious, commercial, cultural or sports. The Mela are spectacular festivals, which celebrate the rich tableau of South Asian culture and creativity, both in Britain and throughout the rest of the world.

Eastleigh
10th July
Leigh Road Recreation Ground

Southampton
16th July
Hoglands Park

Crawley
30th-31st July
The Hawth

Maidstone
10th-11th
September
Mote Park

UNISON will be attending Eastleigh, Southampton, Crawley and Maidstone Mela festivals which will provide great opportunities and a chance to raise our profile within the community. If you would like to help out on any of the days, please email Mumta Erkadoo at: m.erkadoo@unison.co.uk or Dan Pebody at: d.pebody@unison.co.uk

a million voices for public services

To Find out more about UNISON visit us on:
www.unison.org.uk/southeast/blackmembers.asp or contact Mumta Erkadoo at: m.erkadoo@unison.co.uk or Dan Pebody at: d.pebody@unison.co.uk or call: 0845 355 0845

UNISON
the public service union