

Dear Nick,

Please find below our solidarity message to our sisters and brothers in the higher education sector in Great Britain.

Best wishes, Kerstin

Dear Colleagues,

We, the members in the science and education department of the German United Services Union ver.di express our solidarity with our British colleagues in strike action. We believe, that work has it`s fair price and dignity has it`s worth. Therefore we wish you a great success. Be sure, that we follow your struggle for fair wages and share our interests.

The executive committee of the science and education department in ver.di