

UNISON

the union that knows about HOUSING ASSOCIATIONS

Do you work in a housing association, facing rising stress levels and feeling that your managers don't listen or communicate with you?

Are you struggling to do your job because of staff shortages and cuts?

Are there more mergers and TUPE transfers in your workplace?

With each restructuring more jobs are put at risk and pay and conditions are often cut. Many staff have several jobs and are still falling behind with the bills.

UNISON can help. We are the union housing association staff turn to – and we have tens of thousands of members like you. That's because we campaign for decent treatment for all those who work to provide good housing and social care.

We give you a voice for your concerns when we talk to your employer and we will always work to get the best deal for you that we can. And we offer employment assistance and representation for individual members at work when they need it.

Did you know UNISON also...

- has a helpline for members open until midnight
- provides legal advice on any issue for you and your family*
- has a charity – There For You – that offers free debt advice and financial assistance, as well as advice on emotional difficulties – and even school uniform grants and well-being breaks
- offers discounts on insurance and shopping
- gives you access to credit unions for your savings and loans
- gets compensation for accidents and injuries at work?

Join us and you'll be better off

As the union for housing association staff, we campaign for proper investment in housing and social care. We speak out locally and nationally on your behalf. We speak regularly to national housing federations and other national trade bodies, politicians and other policy and decision-makers to put our members' point of view.

So if you work in a housing association join us today.
