UNISON represents 1.3 million people working in the NHS, local government, schools and other public services.

We believe that leaving the EU is a massive gamble that will jeopardise the more equal society that we strive for.

Equalities and rights at work will be at risk as they are enshrined in EU law and upheld by the European Court of Justice.

The NHS and other public services will be at risk from economic uncertainty and a weaker economy.

Are you prepared to risk it?
