

UNISON
PROFESSIONAL SERVICES OFFICER
PROFESSIONAL SERVICES UNIT
REGIONAL MANAGEMENT & GOVERNANCE DIRECTORATE
RMG/16

JOB BRIEF

BACKGROUND

Across all UNISON Service Groups the number of UNISON members who are registered with professional registration bodies is growing. The effect of these changes is to substantially increase the demand for representing members who have been reported to their professional body for some breach of their fitness to practise rules. The scope of regulation has recently increased. In addition to misconduct and health issues there is a statutory responsibility for a registrant's lack of competency to be investigated and corrected where possible.

UNISON has some 200,000 members who are registered with statutory or voluntary registers and the numbers are increasing every year as more professions are registered. Of the nine UK health regulatory bodies the majority of UNISON members are regulated by the NMC & HCPC.

Nurses and Midwives Council (NMC) – regulates Nurses and Midwives
The HCPC currently registers the following professions:

| | |
|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| Arts Therapists | Physiotherapists |
| Biomedical Scientists | Prosthetists and Orthotists |
| Chiropodists and podiatrists | Radiographers |
| Clinical Scientists | Social Workers in England |
| Dieticians | Speech and Language Therapists |
| Occupational Therapists | |
| Orthoptists | |
| Paramedics | |

Professional Services Unit also represents and advises on social care cases in Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.

THE ROLE OF THE PROFESSIONAL SERVICES OFFICER

The post holder will be responsible for the day to day management of their allocated UNISON professional registration cases and the advocacy of such cases. The post will also include training regional staff in the registration bodies' processes and advising regions on a wide range of issues effecting registered professions including Independent Safeguarding Authority cases and Social Care Tribunal Appeals. In particular, the post holder will liaise with the principle registration bodies on conduct and health cases and will advise the Head of Professional Services on policy issues arising from that work.

- Responsibility for the day to day management of their fitness to practice case work. This will include managing the scheduling of cases ensuring cases commitments are met;
- Representing UNISON, in discussions with registration bodies, other unions and professional organisations Health and Local Government Employers, the Department of Health and the Department for Education;
- Assisting Learning And Organising Services in the development of learning materials and curriculum, specific to fitness to practice cases;
- Assisting the development of UNISON regional staff and branch officers within health or local government in representing fitness to practice cases.

In addition the post holder will consult with appropriate bodies to foster commitment to developing UNISON's professional services and will advise and represent UNISON members subject to registration bodies' fitness to practice processes. They will also advise and represent UNISON members subject to The Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006 referrals.

SOCIAL CARE TRIBUNAL

We have a limited number of appeals to the Social Care Tribunal and to the High Court. The Professional Services Officer will advise in such cases and in the case of the Social Care Tribunal may be the advocate for the case.

THE PROTOCOL

UNISON has a protocol (which is subject to review) on handling fitness to practice cases which can be found on the website under the Professional Services page. This defines the role and responsibility of branches, regions and the Professional Services Unit when processing cases.
