

UNISON

the union
for

Nurses join UNISON because we deliver for them. UNISON is the largest and best organised trade union for nursing staff in both the NHS and independent sector.

Our comprehensive network of local branches covers every workplace. We have local reps who are nurses just like you who know, first-hand, the issues you face and how to support you when you need our help.

UNISON is the largest union in health. We:

- Lead negotiations with employers on your pay. We have secured better starting pay to make nursing more attractive and ensured that you can reach the top of your band quicker. That wouldn't have happened without UNISON's leadership. We will never stop fighting to improve pay and other terms and conditions for nurses.
- Campaign to ensure that employers are getting it right by paying nurses what they are entitled to, including the right holiday and sick pay.

- Support nurses with professional development and revalidation requirements.
- Are active on a range of issues that matter to nurses, from student support to staffing levels.

If it's additional peace of mind you are looking for, we can do that. Members can access the support of our professional services unit who handle regulatory cases at the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) from start to finish.

Our members shape the agenda for nursing staff. Your concerns are our concerns. Join UNISON and add your voice to ours. Be part of the union that gets results.
