BULLIED

by British Gas

British Gas staff are being treated with contempt. Threatened with being 'fired and rehired' on significantly worse conditions, with no formal consultation, by the company you have served loyally.

But when UNISON see bullies - we get organised! Join together to get the respect you deserve.

The threat to impose new conditions includes:

- Reductions in annual leave
- Reductions in sick pay
- Reduction in their overtime rate
- A longer working week
- A requirement to be available to work from 6am -11pm 7 days a week, without any additional premium payments and no right to refuse
- Removal of contractual enhanced redundancy pay

Managers are glossing over years of corporate led decline and the fact you have, on countless occasions, made sacrifices and entered reasonable negotiations to ensure the business remained viable. You deserve to be treated with respect. You are entitled to protect your livelihood.

But you have power. The majority of the workforce at British Gas are members of a trade union - we are united against the British Gas Bullies!
