

GRADUATING?

Stay supported in UNISON

As a student member, you will have all the support and benefits available through UNISON.

We want to make it easy for you to keep your UNISON benefits when you qualify. If you pay by direct debit, we make the process hassle-free by transferring your student membership to full UNISON membership. You don't have to do a thing!

UNISON
the public service union

By transferring your membership, you'll still be protected and supported by UNISON as a graduate, and you won't have to worry about a gap in your membership.

It is also very important that we hold the correct details for you - this includes:

- Your email address
- Your postal address
- Your job role
- Your pay range once you qualify

We need this information for when we need to get in touch with you and so that we can confirm you are paying the correct subscription rate.

If you need to change or update your membership details, you can log in to My UNISON at my.unison.org.uk. You will need your membership number, which you can find on all emails and letters from UNISON and on your membership card.

Alternatively, you can contact your regional membership team to update your details. Information on regional contacts is available on our website at unsn.uk/ContactRegion. Whenever you contact your region, please include your membership number, employer, workplace, job title and salary range.

You can always get in touch with us by calling UNISON's helpline on 0800 0 857 857.

We're never alone in UNISON

You never know when you might face a problem at work, especially in these current difficult times. Being part of a union means if you do encounter problems, you're never facing them alone.

- You get free access to a legal helpline
- You get exclusive deals on travel insurance, holidays, new cars and more
- We negotiate pay and conditions in your workplace. The more members we have, the stronger our position is, and that means we can get a better deal for you.
- Your membership contribution helps us fight for better working conditions for all.
