

Vote yes to keep UNISON's campaign voice

UNISON is required by law to ballot members every 10 years to keep the political fund.

The union uses the political fund to campaign to promote decent jobs, good pay and well funded public services.

The ballot runs between 15 July and 16 August.

For more information or if you have not received your ballot paper by 24 July please call the UNISON direct call centre on 0800 0 857 857 (text phone 0800 0 967 968).

Five important ways that UNISON's campaign voice supports members

1

Supporting campaigns for workers' rights

2

Influencing politicians across the UK to secure investment in public services including the NHS, local government, education and police and justice

3

Being the voice against all discrimination

4

Fighting to defend jobs

5

Campaigning for a fairer society
